

Handwritten marks consisting of several slanted lines at the top of the page.

A large grid of empty cells, likely a ledger or account book page. The grid consists of 13 vertical columns and 15 horizontal rows. The lines are black and the paper is off-white.

Handwritten marks consisting of several slanted lines, similar to the top section, located in the middle of the page.

A large grid of empty cells, similar to the top section, located in the bottom half of the page. The grid consists of 13 vertical columns and 15 horizontal rows. The lines are black and the paper is off-white.